President's Message—March 2017

It has been 40+ days now since the Inauguration of President Donald Trump (Hooray!) and he has already accomplished a monumental amount of actions that he promised us that he would do during his campaign! Now if only the Dems would get with the act and confirm the rest of his Cabinet and lower nominees, he will really get the Trump Train rolling! Did you like the President's speech to the Joint Session of Congress as much as I did?! I thought he hit it out of the park and even some of the liberal media had to admit that it was a true Presidential speech. Of course, the media has now been negatively focusing on AG Jeff Sessions and his "talk with the Russian Ambassador" as if it was a secret meeting to see how the Russians could help Trump get elected. Hogwash! I believe that Sessions appropriately explained the situation but the Left will keep this on the front burner as long as possible to steer the news away from all the good works that the Administration is doing for the American people. It was truly despicable how the Dems refused to stand at the President's speech when he was talking about so many honorable issues that affect us all. In my humble opinion, it is really getting more than tiring and very frustrating to hear the constant hypocrisy that the Left is throwing at us on a daily basis. Arrgh! I believe the Republicans have to peacefully stand up to the garbage that is being thrown at us. Additionally, the D.C. Republicans have to UNITE behind our President and give him the support that he needs to fulfill what we elected him to do Make America Great Again! OK, I'll get down off the soapbox for now! ☺

There are many events in the works that you can attend to help support the Republican cause. Check out the Calendar of Meetings/Events in this issue to see some of the great activities you can attend.

I will be giving a short presentation on behalf of DCRW at the Colorado Women's Bar Association on March 9th to help promote DCRW and hopefully bring in some new members. Jeanette NewVille and I will be attending their Forum on how women can become more politically involved. I urge all of you to reach out to your circle of influence to invite your friends, family, neighbors, and co-workers to come and experience the DCRW experience! It is up to all of us to bring new members into the fold. Remember that the mid-term elections are not that far off so we have to expand our base now.

In addition to handing out a questionnaire at the last meeting to see if you would like to serve in any number of positions and/or activities associated with the smooth running of DCRW, we are also including it in this Newsletter. If you have not already done so, please fill it out and return it to me as soon as possible either via email or regular mail. There is a lot of work to do to "keep the ship afloat" and we always need volunteers! Remember, Republican women are the backbone of the Republican Party and that also trickles down to the local RW clubs.

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you on March 15th to hear our Colorado Treasurer Walker Stapleton!

Yours in Freedom and Liberty,

Marsha ☺

DCRW President

March Speaker: Walker Stapleton

Term Limits, PERA and Colorado 2017

Until being sworn in as Colorado's 43rd State Treasurer on January 11, 2011, Treasurer Walker Stapleton served as CEO and CFO of various private and publicly traded companies. His extensive private sector background in finance has uniquely prepared him for the job of State Treasurer.

The duties of the Colorado Treasurer's office include, investing Colorado's tax dollars, overseeing the unclaimed property division, which distributes property back to its lawful owners, and serving on the board of our Public Employee Retirement Association (PERA).

Walker envisions a more fiscally responsible and effective state government. His priorities as Colorado's Treasurer are to safely and prudently invest Colorado's tax dollars, reform Colorado's PERA, and bring a higher level of accountability and transparency to government.

In 2014 Treasurer Stapleton was named one of America's top 24 rising political stars by the Aspen Institute. He received the Aspen Institute's prestigious Rodel Fellowship, a program designed to bring together elected officials who have demonstrated an outstanding ability to work responsibly across partisan divisions and bring greater civility to public discourse.

Walker, his wife Jenna, son Craig, and daughters Colette and Olivia live in Arapahoe county. Treasurer Stapleton's community efforts include serving on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Metro Denver and the Denver Metro Council of the El Pomar Foundation. His wife Jenna is on the Board of Advisors of ACE Scholarships. Together, on a volunteer basis, they are involved in many other Colorado charities.

Walker graduated from Williams College in Massachusetts, and he holds a graduate degree in business economics from the London School of Economics and an MBA from Harvard Business School.

DCRW Member Questionnaire

We are always looking to include more members in the operational functions of DCRW. Please fill out the questionnaire below to let us know in what capacity you are willing to assist us and turn in to President Marsha Haeflein as soon as possible. Thank you for considering to step up and help us out. We would like to have as many members as possible participate.

2. Are you happy with the location of our luncheon meetings at Lone Tree? Are there other places that you feel would be better suited? Please keep in the mind the cost of the luncheons which can be prohibitive at most venues. We also need to have ample space, the use of the microphone and sound systems, etc., not just the cost of the meal. Please include venue, cost of meals, etc.

3. Are you pleased with the luncheon menu? If not, why and what do you suggest?

4. Are there things you would like to see or do (or not) at our regular meetings? Are you pleased with the programs? Program suggestions are welcomed!

5. Would you like to chair or serve on our Silent/Live Auction Committee? Please indicate in what capacity:

7. Please check the boxes where you can volunteer to serve:

Invocation Pledge Greeter Audit

8. Are you willing to serve as an Officer of DCRW? If so, a job description for each office is in the By-Law portion of the Membership Directory where you can see what is involved. Be advised that the By-Laws show just a brief outline of duties as there is more involved than what is listed. These can all be very time consuming positions!

In addition to our General Meeting, the Board usually meets once a month to conduct the business of DCRW. The terms for all Board members are for two years with a limit of three two-year terms. We will electing new officers for the 2018-2019 term in November 2017.

Women's History Month

Excerpted from <http://www.nwhp.org/womens-history-month/womens-history-month-history/>

As recently as the 1970's, women's history was virtually an unknown topic in the K-12 curriculum or in general public consciousness. To address this situation, the Education Task Force of the Sonoma County (California) Commission on the Status of Women initiated a "Women's History Week" celebration for 1978. The week March 8th, International Women's Day, was chosen as the focal point of the observance.

Presidential and Congressional Support

In February 1980 President Carter issued the first Presidential Proclamation declaring the Week of March 8th 1980 as National Women's History Week. In the same year, Representative Barbara Mikulski, who at the time was in the House of Representatives, and Senator Orrin Hatch co-sponsored a Congressional Resolution for National Women's History Week 1981. This co-sponsorship demonstrated the wide-ranging political support for recognizing, honoring, and celebrating the achievements of American women.

National Women's History Month

By 1986, 14 states had already declared March as Women's History Month. This momentum and state-by-state action was used as the rationale to lobby Congress to declare the entire month of March 1987 as National Women's History Month. In 1987, Congress declared March as National Women's History Month in perpetuity. A special Presidential Proclamation is issued every year which honors the extraordinary achievements of American women.

Prayers, Speedy Recovery, and Sympathies...

An update on Jim Sullivan and his foot! Thankfully, all the radiation treatments that Jim has had to endure is looking to be a very successful recovery! At this point, the doctors do not see any more cancer in his foot and he will be going back to the doctor in a week or so for the final results! Jim wants to thank everyone for their prayers!

Please keep Norm Scheffel and his family in your prayers as he's back in the hospital again for a brain bleed stemming from the car accident he was in right before Christmas. It has been drained and he is doing well. Note: I don't know if he's still in the hospital but I'm sure he would appreciate a card or two from our members!

As if the Lord family has not had enough troubles lately, Lucy's husband Walter lost his mother a few weeks ago after a long illness. They went back to RI for the funeral and are now back home.

Let's hope for a more healthy 2017!

If you know of anyone who needs some cheering up or a note of sympathy, please contact Sunshine Chairman Laurie Rogers at laurrog@msn.com or Marsha Haeflein at 303-841-4318.
