President's Message—September 2017

I hope all of you had a safe and Happy Labor Day weekend . . . this can't be the end of summer, can it be?! So soon? ☹

As this is being written, we are all disheartened and concerned about another Hurricane headed for Florida . . . Irma looks to be catastrophic so our prayers are with all the people in Irma's path. Both Texas and Florida++ victims will be needing our help so please be as generous as you can in supporting relief efforts! Unbelievably, Hurricane Jose is yet another one churning towards Florida. We are so fortunate to live in Colorado.

*On to more local news, we're into another election that we all have to pay attention to . . . the Douglas County School Board will be electing four new members this November. There is a wonderful slate of candidates that I hope you will consider supporting with the Three T's . . . your Time, Talent, and Treasure. Go to www.ElevateDouglasCounty.com to see four great candidates who will stand for: "Renewing Douglas County's tradition of educational excellence, empowering parents to be partners in their children's education, supporting and respecting educators, and expanding educational options for students." Please support Randy Mills, our own Debora Scheffel, Grant Nelson, and Ryan Abresch.

I don't have to reiterate again how frustrated I am about the political scene in D.C. When will our Republicans start working with President Trump to MAGA!? You're probably just as annoyed as I am over the lack of progress we've seen from the House and Senate. Let's hope they get their act together before the mid-terms or they could be in dire straits.

I urge all of you to support our Non-Auction Auction, too. The flyer is in this issue, pages 5 and 6, and is our only large fundraiser of the year in support of the CO House and Senate. They need our help to retain the majority in the Senate and to take back the House!

Of course, the Governor's and Treasurer's race is also on the table in 2018 so, hang on to your hats, it's going to be a rocky road ahead but we need all hands on deck! Get to know your candidates and vet them very well to make sure that they hold the same values and principles that you aspire to. Some good ways to meet them is to attend the local breakfast clubs where they are speaking, attend the fundraisers and forum events, AND attend the DCRW meetings.

If you're interested in serving DCRW on the Board for 2018-2019, make sure to make your intentions known to the Nominating Committee that will be formed in September.

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you on September 20th to hear from former U.S. Ambassador to Bahrain Sam Zakhem. It will be a very informative presentation that you don't want to miss!

Yours in Freedom and Liberty,

Marsha ☺

*Marsha Haeflein
DCRW President*

September Speaker: Sam H. Zakhem

Ambassador Sam H. Zakhem, an immigrant from Lebanon, became a US citizen in 1970. He registered as a Republican the same year and was immediately elected to be a precinct committeeman. He began his political career in 1974 when he was elected to the Colorado State House of Representatives, serving one term. In 1977, he served as the chair of the Finance Committee. Later, he served two terms in the Colorado State Senate. In 1986, he was appointed by President Ronald Reagan as Ambassador to Bahrain, a position he held until 1989 during the George H.W. Bush administration. Ambassador Zakhem was later heavily involved in building the Coalition of the Gulf War in 1990-1991.

Ambassador Zakhem is well-known for his stance against communism and his strong support of family, flag and country. He makes a special point of being a U.S. citizen "by choice," not by accident of birth.

In March, The Villager carried an article titled, "A Visit to Abu Dhabi." The Ambassador was a featured speaker at the 22nd Annual Conference in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates. The theme was The Future of the Region, Oil Price Challenges. The article stated that Zakhem gave a rousingly patriotic presentation, having been ambassador during the Desert Storm conflict, during which he helped the US Navy obtain key seaports in the area. He is fondly remembered and respected by the leaders in the Gulf states and was honored to be a panelist during the 2-day session.

2017 NON-AUCTION AUCTION!

As in previous years, DCRW would like to continue in our quest to support the CO Senate Majority Fund and the CO House Legislative Fund by collecting funds to help elect Republicans to the CO Legislature in 2018! No need to tell the choir that this election is critical to Colorado in keeping the Republican majority in the Senate and hopefully to take back the House, too! To that end, we will again be holding a Non-Auction Auction! Please support us (and your Colorado candidates) by donating a monetary gift in the amount that you would usually use to go out and purchase an auction item(s) for our former Silent/Live Auction and the money you would use for a dinner ticket. This will save you a tremendous amount of time and effort and still enable you to support our candidates! ALL proceeds will be divided equally among the House and Senate Funds. By raising the monies this way, all of us can still do our part in doing everything we can to help our Republican candidates get elected: attend patriotic rallies and educational events; work on Get-Out-The-Vote efforts; attend Fundraisers; walk those precincts; and register voters, etc. Remember that . . .

UNITED WE STAND . . . DIVIDED WE FALL!

We currently have two forms of donation (with access to PayPal coming in the near future):

(1) Send your check (marked for the Non-Auction Auction) and made payable to DCRW and mail to:

Marsha Haeflein, 7780 Homestead Road, Parker, CO 80138-7916 OR

(2) Bring your cash or check to our September 20th or October 18th luncheon meetings.

Make sure you fill out the required donation form and return that with your donation!

With your individual permission, your name will be acknowledged in our November newsletter and on our website. We hope all of you will seriously consider this invitation to help our Republican candidates! Everyone has to do his/her effort to advance our Republican principles and, if you can support our efforts, any amount counts, large or small! Thank you and May God Bless America!

Upcoming elections for Board Officers for 2018-2019

We will be electing a three-person Nominating Committee at our September 20th meeting and they will then choose a slate of officers for the Board for the next 2018-2019 term. If you are interested in serving on the Board in any capacity, you can then notify one of the three members on the Nominating Committee that you would like to be considered for a position. The slate will be presented at the October meeting and voting will take place at our Annual Meeting in November. The new Board will then take office at the end of the January 2018 meeting. Keep in mind that if you are a member of the Nominating Committee, you may not be considered for a Board position. After the slate is presented in October, nominating can then be taken from the floor. Please consider serving DCRW in one of these positions!

Lincoln Club of Colorado Kicks Off The Celebration of Our 100th Birthday with a Picnic in the Park

- Celebrating 100 years of conservative thought and Promoting Republican principles -

You're invited to a 100th birthday celebration kick-off on Saturday, October 7th, 2017 from 12 noon to 3pm at Washington Park! Admission is only $5 per person to cover costs, but we'll be asking guests to donate desserts for purchase to benefit the Lincoln Club's small donor committee (for the benefit of our GOP candidates in 2018)!

It wouldn't be a birthday party without celebrating our (advanced!) age. We'll recognize all of Colorado's GOP clubs for their successful service to our Party. There will be lots of prizes for everything from the (next) oldest club to the one club with the largest membership.

We have reserved the best location in the park to hold our centennial kick-off picnic. Easy to find on East Mississippi just off South Franklin Street. We'll be set up at picnic areas 3b next to plenty of parking and a playground for the kids.

Feel free to bring a large blanket and lay under the trees or your camp chairs to sit a spell.

Questions or to RSVP a dessert or to give information about your group call or e-mail

Labor Day – September 4

Excerpted from <http://www.history.com/topics/holidays/labor-day>

Observed on the first Monday in September, Labor Day pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers. It was created by the labor movement in the late 19th century and became a federal holiday in 1894. Labor Day also symbolizes the end of summer for many Americans, and is celebrated with parties, parades and athletic events.

Labor Day, an annual celebration of workers and their achievements, originated during one of American labor history's most dismal chapters. In the late 1800s, at the height of the Industrial Revolution in the United States, the average American worked 12-hour days and seven-day weeks in order to eke out a basic living. Despite restrictions in some states, children as young as 5 or 6 toiled in mills, factories and mines across the country, earning a fraction of their adult counterparts' wages.

As manufacturing increasingly supplanted agriculture as the wellspring of American employment, labor unions, which had first appeared in the late 18th century, grew more prominent and vocal. They began organizing strikes and rallies to protest poor conditions and compel employers to renegotiate hours and pay. Many of these events turned violent during this period, including the infamous Haymarket Riot of 1886, in which several Chicago policemen and workers were killed.

Many credit Peter J. McGuire, cofounder of the American Federation of Labor, as the originator of the Labor Day holiday; others suggest that Matthew Maguire, a secretary of the Central Labor Union. Labor Day is still celebrated in cities and towns across the United States with parades, picnics, barbecues, fireworks displays and other public gatherings. For many Americans, particularly children and young adults, it represents the end of the summer and the start of the back-to-school season.

Prayers and Deep Sympathies to . . .

- Lucy and Walt Lord whose son, Jake, tragically fell while climbing the Capitol Peaks 14'r in Aspen on July 15th.
- Diana Wiens whose father recently passed away.
- Deacon Erin Cook whose brother, Martin Emmons, died of pancreatic cancer on August 2nd.
- Former DCRW Member Joan Cooley who died on August 2nd and will be buried beside her husband, Gen. Andy Cooley, in Arlington National Cemetery.

Please keep these members and their families in your prayers. It has been a tragic and very sad summer!

Get Well Wishes to . . .

- Diane Holbert who fell and broke both of her arms earlier this summer! Thankfully, she is well on the road to a complete recovery!
- Jim Sullivan who is still dealing with cancer-related issues with his foot.
- Pat Nohavec-Fink's husband Jim who is finally home from the hospital after a number of health issues.

If you know of anyone who needs some cheering up or a note of sympathy, please contact Sunshine Chairman Laurie Rogers at laurrog@msn.com or Marsha Haeflein at 303-841-4318.

Constitution Day, September 17th

Constitution Day, September 17th begins a week long celebration of our Constitution. The celebration's goals are threefold: encourage the study of historical events that led to the framing of the Constitution in September 1787; inform people that the Constitution is the basis of America's great heritage and foundation of our way of life; emphasize U.S. citizens' responsibility to protect, defend and preserve the Constitution.

“Oh Lord our Governor, whose glory is in all the world: We commend this nation to your merciful care, that, being guided by your Providence, we may dwell secure in your peace. Grant to the President of the United States, and to all in authority, wisdom and strength to know and do your will. Fill them with the love of truth and righteousness and make them ever mindful of their calling to serve this people in your fear, through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Amen
