President's Message—March 2018

We started the year with our Gubernatorial Forum. We had approximately 80-85 people there, many of whom would have never heard all the candidates except for that forum. As women and Republicans, we have so much to offer and it is our responsibility to go into our communities and educate and fight for our principles. We need to let people know what we stand for, speak with our own message and broadcast our Republican values. The more there are of us the easier that job will be.

Every time we turn on the TV or pick up printed material, we hear and read about infrastructure. We need to think about our own DCRW infrastructure: do we increase our membership, so there are more of us to work for our candidates and to raise funds to help our candidates? Of course we should. Let's see if everyone can bring a visitor/new member to the March meeting. Francis of Assisi said "First do what is necessary, then what is possible and before long you will be doing the impossible."

March 6th is Caucus, so bring a friend/neighbor with you, run to be elected a Precinct Person or a Delegate or both. Remember "First do what is necessary" and you are on your way to doing your part.

March 10-11 is the CFRW Board meeting at the Embassy Suites in the Tech Center. If you can't attend the entire meeting, please try to come to the Saturday evening dinner where the speaker will be Nick Adams, a young man from Australia who fought long and hard to be a citizen of our country. He speaks with such passion you really shouldn't miss him. To make a reservation call me at 303-768-8370. Ladies, you can also bring your husbands.

March Speaker: Dick Wadhams

Dick Wadhams is a Colorado political consultant who served as Colorado Republican state chairman from 2007 to 2011. He serves as a political analyst for KCNC-TV/CBS4 in Denver. He worked for U.S. Senator Bill Armstrong from 1980 to 1989 in Colorado and Washington, D.C. and was campaign manager for U.S. Senator Hank Brown's campaign to succeed Armstrong in 1990. He also managed both of U.S. Senator Wayne Allard's campaigns in 1996 and 2002.

Wadhams was campaign manager for Colorado Governor Bill Owens in 1998 when Owens became the first Republican governor to be elected in 28 years and he remains the only Republican governor in the past 44 years. Wadhams served as press secretary for Governor Owens and he ran the successful statewide campaign to pass the governor's $1.7 billion transportation improvement plan in 1999.

He was campaign manager for South Dakota U.S. Senator John Thune in 2004 when Thune unseated Senate Democratic Leader Tom Daschle which was the first time an incumbent Senate Leader was defeated for reelection in 52 years. He also worked for Montana U.S. Senator Conrad Burns in his successful campaigns in 1994 and 2000.

Dick Wadhams is a native of rural southeastern Colorado and is a graduate of Colorado State University-Pueblo.

We've chosen Project Sanctuary to receive donations from our table buckets.

Project Sanctuary is a charitable organization founded by a former Parker resident that receives top ratings from charity watchdogs Guide Star and Charity Navigator; it serves the military in Colorado, working with veterans and active-duty personnel and their families. From their website <https://projectsanctuary.us/who-we-are/> we hope you agree they are worthy of our recognition:

- Founding Principle: The whole family serves, and the best way to "support the troops" is by supporting the family.
- Vision Statement: Project Sanctuary will assist military service members returning from our nation's wars and conflicts by reconnecting the family unit through a holistic approach, healing the effects of war, treating all members of the family at their level of need, and enabling the service members to reintegrate into their families and communities in a healthy and sustainable manner, resulting in preservation of the family unit and strengthening of the community, the military and the country.
- Mission Statement: Project Sanctuary takes our military families from battle-ready to family-ready by providing six-day, outdoor, therapeutic retreats in a healing environment and ongoing family support services for two years following each retreat.
