President's Message—May 2018

It is hard to believe this is the May newsletter and after the May luncheon, we will be taking our three month summer recess until September.

We may have a meeting recess, but we have a very important Primary Election on June 26 and an even more important election in November. Your candidates will need your help. Let's put our best foot forward during this campaign season, so we don't have an ugly primary.

Wayne Williams is facing a tough race for Secretary of State and George Brauchler for Attorney General – hop on board with one or both of them and let them know you are willing to volunteer.

As announced, we will have an auction at our October meeting, and hope to raise enough money to make a sizeable contribution to our State House and Senate races. But, to do this we need your donations to the auction as well as your bids in October. This would also be a great opportunity to invite your friends and neighbors to our luncheon to help them become more involved and informed.

If you already have an item you plan to donate to the auction, bring it to the May meeting as we have already begun to accumulate items.

REMINDER -- DCRW will be co-hosting the CFRW District VI Luncheon on June 2, with check-in starting at 11am program at 11:30, it will be held at Valley Country Club in Centennial with a cost of $25 and our keynote speaker will be Congressman Mike Coffman. Please make a reservation, as we don't want the Cherry Creek Republican Women to have more in attendance than DCRW.

Good bye for the summer ladies ... let's come back from summer vacations energized for the fight to take back the Governor's Mansion.

Wishing you all safe travels and fun in the sun! Stay informed...stay connected...and reach out to your friends and neighbors and invite them to join in with us as we work to elect Republicans.

Barbara Piper
President, Douglas County Republican Women

May Speaker: DCSO Undersheriff Holly Nicholson-Kluth

Holly Nicholson-Kluth is the Undersheriff of the Douglas County Sheriff's Office. She was sworn in as Undersheriff on July 23, 2014. As Undersheriff, she oversees almost 700 deputies, civilians and volunteers and the DCSO's $62 million dollar budget.

Holly started her career with DCSO in 1989 in the Patrol Division and has served in almost every division in the Sheriff's Office since then. Before appointment to Undersheriff she served as the Chief of the Administrative Services Bureau for 4 years, which oversees Detention and Court Security, Civil and Warrants, Information Technology and Dispatch. Previous to that she served as the Chief of the Law Enforcement Bureau for 4 years, which oversees the Patrol and Investigations divisions. She also served as Director of the Colorado Regional Computer Forensics Laboratory from 2001 through 2004 and has specialized training in Computer Forensics.

Her interests and special training have included crimes against children, computer crimes, technology, officer wellness, and leadership.

Holly has a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice and holds her Master's Degree from Regis University in Psychology with studies in Forensic and Organizational Psychology, as well as Adult Learning. Holly attended and graduated from the FBI National Academy in Quantico Virginia in 2014.

Holly lives in Douglas County and is married with two grown children and one grandchild.

"Vests for DCSO K-9 Officers" will receive donations from May table bucket contributions

Hello! We're Deputy Travis Kyle and Colt, one of the DCSO's K-9 Officer teams. Once again, DCRW's table donations will be put towards protective vests for DCSO K-9s, to help protect their tender midsections from knife wounds and broken glass when jumping through broken doors or windows. Won't you help our young K-9 friends who will soon be measured for their own vests? Please make checks payable to "DCSO" and add "K-9 Vests" in the memo field.

If you have an item ready to donate to October's auction, please bring it with you to our May meeting.
